Lilly Endowment awards grants in “Educational Collaborations” initiative

Thousands of Indiana college students should benefit from new or expanded internship and placement opportunities to be offered through the myriad of collaborative programs that will receive funding in Lilly Endowment’s Initiative to Promote Opportunity Through Educational Collaborations.

“We are most pleased with the imagination and creativity demonstrated by Indiana colleges and universities in their proposals for this initiative,” said Sara B. Cobb, Endowment vice president for education. “Dozens of new relationships with alumni and others have been developed that will offer numerous internships and other experiential education opportunities for Indiana students.”

Totaling $38.9 million, the amounts of the grants were based on total number of students at each school. The following is a complete list of colleges and the grant amounts:

Ancilla Domini College, Donaldson, $750,000
Anderson University, $750,000
Ball State University Foundation, Muncie, $1.5 million
Bethel College, Mishawaka, $750,000
Butler University, Indianapolis, $750,000
