

Strengthening Indianapolis Through Arts and Cultural Innovation

Grantees

Announced in January 2018, the Strengthening Indianapolis Through Arts and Cultural Innovation initiative is a new grantmaking effort designed to encourage community building and celebrate creativity. The initiative, through which the Endowment will provide grants totaling nearly $49 million, seeks to encourage ideas that uplift the unique and important role that arts and cultural organizations and projects play in building strong communities.

Grantee	Project	Amount
Arts for Learning	Third Space	$327,000
Big Car	Cruft Street Commons	$3,000,000
Central Indiana Community Foundation	GM Stamping Plant Design Competition	$300,000
Downtown Indy	*Shining a Light on Indianapolis	$3,866,240
Eagle Creek Park Foundation	New Trail System	$2,600,000
Harrison Center	Convertible	$2,128,160
Indiana Black Expo	Dance Heritage Programs	$50,000
Indiana Blind Children's Foundation	No Limits Arts Series	$1,003,167
Indiana War Memorials Foundation	*Shining a Light on Indianapolis	$3,814,715
Indianapolis Neighborhood Resource Center	Creative Placemaking Training Program	$553,561

*Shining a Light on Indianapolis is a jointly-funded project.

Indianapolis Parks Foundation	Taggart Memorial Mainstage Amphitheatre	$9,240,000
IndyFringe	Fringe on Wheels	$49,000
John Boner Neighborhood Centers	10 East Art & Design District	4,319,216
Keep Indianapolis Beautiful	Art & Seek Public Art Initiative	$674,520
Lawrence (City of)	Cultural Campus at Fort Harrison	$5,851,969
Wayne Township MSD	RosieCon	$49,900
Newfields	Festival Infrastructure	$8,000,000
Phalen Leadership Academies	Arts as Empowerment	$3,045,350
