INDIANA ASSOCIATION OF RESOURCES
AND CHILD ADVOCACY

Chris Daley
Chief Executive Officer

INDIANA ASSOCIATION OF RESOURCES AND CHILD ADVOCACY

An association of 100+ child and family welfare agencies who work everyday in every Indiana county to:

- Keep families in crisis together
- Reunite families if separation occurs
- Help children and their families overcome trauma
- Build new families if necessary

We provide:

- Training and knowledge for child and family welfare professionals
- Data and transparency through our Outcomes Project
- Workforce and Leadership Development for agencies and community businesses
- And advocacy with the state for resources that support services to children and their families

How can we help you:

Trainings:

We offer trainings throughout the year that you and your staff can attend at accessible rates, including:

- Basics on trauma informed care
- Practicing Motivational Interviewing
- Certification courses for Trauma Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy

Keep up with our training opportunities at: www.Iarca.org/training

Webinars on demand:

Throughout the year, the IARCA Institute for Excellence offers webinars on a variety of subjects. Whenever possible, we then make those webinars free to the public on demand. We currently have webinars on:

- A Second Chance: Attachment, Substance Use, Pregnancy, and Neurobiology
- Beyond Cultural and Linguistic Competence: Achieving Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

How you can help us:

Submit a workshop proposal for our 2021 Annual IARCA Conference – September 15 and 16 in Indianapolis

Do you have an innovative program model to share? Is your agency a specialist in working with a specific population? Are you involved in an interesting collaboration that helps children and families?

Contact Heather Adebayo (hadebayo@iarca.org) about submitting a workshop proposal before March 15th.
