

Lilly Endowment Inc.

Teacher Creativity Fellowship Program 2022

Fellowship recipients of up to $12,000

Note: Year in parentheses denotes year of a previous Teacher Creativity Fellowship grant.

AKRON

Tippecanoe Valley School Corporation

Tippecanoe Valley High School

Lacey Wise

“Save the Pollinators, Save the World” - learn the origin, evolution, and importance of beekeeping by travelling through California and Hawaii, taking beekeeping courses, exploring habitats and meeting with experts committed to the repopulation of pollinators

ANDERSON

Anderson Community Schools

COMPASS

Charles Graybiel

“Restorative Research and Rejuvenation in Africa” - seek to be mindful and bring peace to those within one’s surroundings by experiencing Africa

ANGOLA

MSD of Steuben County

Angola Middle School

Kristine McCain, Brian Miller and Janice Miller (with Marlene Ewen of Pleasant Lake Elementary)

“Trek From 30.6954° N, 88.0399° W To 30.6954° N, 88.0399° W: The Path of Freedom” - bicycle along the Path of Freedom that slaves traveled from Alabama to Canada striving to reach freedom

AVON

Avon Community School Corporation

Avon High School

Lisa Kern (2014)

“One Hundred Miles of Heritage” - hike and kayak 100 miles visiting European World Heritage sites to see how ecosystems shaped human cultures, how these sites may be affected by climate change and how they are protected

Catherine Lewis

“From Learning Alone to Francophone!” - escape the stress of everyday life to study the French language, then venture close encounters with French speakers

Matthew Payne

“Wonders of the West: Natural and Man-made Marvels Reveal Diverse Chemistry” - chronicle captivating changes in natural ecosystems in Crater Lake, Yellowstone and Yosemite National Parks; connect chemistry to modern engineering and offer students engaging analysis to reveal the diverse chemistry enabling these systems to thrive

BATESVILLE

Batesville Community Schools Corporation

Batesville Intermediate School

Kayla Pinckley

“Living in the Zone: A Search for Longevity” - visit an island in Italy to soak in a region that is home to the greatest concentration of centenarians in the world; hike, explore, eat and participate in the daily routines of the citizens of Sardinia, Italy to discover the secrets to living a healthier and happier life

BEDFORD

North Lawrence Community Schools

Bedford North Lawrence High School

Errin Layer

“From Bokeh to f64 across the American West” - connect meaningfully with family while using digital photography and multiple older film cameras on a journey to Yellowstone National Park

BLOOMFIELD

Bloomfield School District

Bloomfield High School

Julie Evans

“Finding and Nourishing Courage and Creativity Through the Magic of Harry Potter” - explore magical locations in Ireland, Scotland and England, which inspired author J.K. Rowling and build cross-curricular projects for students in a rural school’s makerspace

Eastern Greene Schools

Eastern Greene Middle School

Amy Goodwin (2014)

“A Quilter’s Quest in Majestic Mountains” - learn to create landscape quilts, combining interests in photography and quilting, while using Washington and Alaska parks as inspiration

BLOOMINGTON

Monroe County Community School Corporation
Bloomington High School South
Kirstin Milks

“Prosthetic Love Extensions: Fabricating Human-powered Animal Art to Motivate Empathy, Environmental Protection, and Climate Action” - apprentice in museum fabrication of human-powered animal puppets and sculptures as an artist-in-residence at Chicago’s Amalgam Incorporated and Pumping Station

Shannon Wenning

“Experiencing Endangered Animals and Reliving My Dreams, One Zoo at a Time” - rekindle a youthful dream of working in a zoo by visiting 25 different menageries around the United States

Highland Park Elementary School
Claire Clayton (2014)

“Ancient Ireland: In Search of the Thin Places” - study Ireland’s multitude of megalithic sites - the point where archeology, anthropology, astronomy, geology, geography, history, myth and folklore converge

Richland-Bean Blossom Community School Corporation
Edgewood Intermediate School
Andrew Scholl

“On the Road to Barbecue Heaven” - experience the best barbecue in the country, learn to create it and share the experience with other novice pit masters

BOONVILLE

Warrick County School Corporation
Loge Elementary School
Heather Warner (with Kristofer Warner of Newburgh Elementary School)

“A Japanese Foreign Exchange Experience” - a family visit to Japan to learn about its culture, family norms, beliefs, horticulture and educational practices; landscape a Japanese garden for relaxation at home

BRISTOL

Middlebury Community Schools
York Elementary School
Kathleen Huys

“Let’s Start at the Very Beginning” - trace the steps of three sets of great-grandparents from the beginning of their lives in northern Belgium through their immigration to the United States

BROWNSBURG

Brownsburg Community School Corporation
Brownsburg High School
Kimberly Lucas

“She Collects Sea Glass by the Seashore, Coast to Coast” – guided by the book, Gift from the Sea, collect sea glass on the United States East and West coasts, master stand-up paddle boarding and learn jewelry making techniques

CARMEL

Carmel Clay Schools
Clay Middle School
Brian McGuckin (2013)

“Landafræði mótar siðmenningu = Geography Shapes Civilization” – explore Iceland, the land of fire and ice, while creating primary source photography and video for visual storytelling; illustrate how landscape shapes life

CHESTERTON

Duneland School Corporation
Lei Sensibaugh

“Ad astra per aspera: Photographing the Light of the Past” – photograph the light of the past and explore the Hispanic and indigenous cultures of the American Southwest

COLUMBIA CITY

Whitley County Consolidated Schools
Indian Springs Middle School
Robert Ahlersmeyer (2014)

“Journey Across the Stars: Chronicling the Iconic Locations of the Most Influential and Transcendent Movie of All Time” – experience the iconic locales where the Star Wars movies were filmed in Europe and Africa

COLUMBUS

Bartholomew Consolidated School Corporation
Columbus East High School
Michael Walls

“Reef Visitation for Revivification” – SCUBA dive the Great Barrier Reef and sample some of the biodiversity Australia offers below and above sea level

Mt. Healthy Elementary School & L.F. Smith Elementary School

Courtney Foreman (with Jennifer Blasdel of Maxwell Intermediate School)

“Make Mine Mediterranean” – explore the Greek Islands and their unique and unspoiled landscape; learn their traditional diet and carry this healthy lifestyle back home to achieve and maintain wellness

Northside Middle School

Eleanora Freeman

“Indiana Anne Crosses the Pond to Uncover Geologic Gems” – travel to the Lake District in England and the Grand Canyon in the United States to experience the magnificence of Earth’s 4.6-billion-year history

CROWN POINT

Crown Point Community School Corporation

Crown Point High School

Lisa Keene

“Yerd: A Yearbook Nerd’s Epic Quest for Spiritual and Grammatical Enlightenment” – experience heightened creativity at Sedona’s vortex sites to write a curriculum pack to teach grammar and literary devices

EDINBURGH

Edinburgh Community Schools

East Side Elementary

Amanda Poynter

“Sisterhood of the Traveling Hockey Skates” – find camaraderie and sisterhood of women around the world using the common language of ice hockey

EVANSVILLE

Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation

Benjamin Bosse High School

Kelsey Roth

“Half the Marathon, Double the Views” – hike Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks, and complete a half marathon in Grand Teton National Park

Central High School

Tammy Shelley

“Get Your Revive on I-95: Exploring Early American History Through Literature and Culture Along the East Coast” – explore American literary history starting at Interstate 95 in Washington D.C. and ending in Maine

McCutchanville Elementary School

Jennifer Pickles

“Gaining Global Perspective: Stepping into a Renewed Mindset” - visit a school in Sfax, Tunisia to gain new cultural perspective; immerse in daily life with a family in Aix-en-Provence, France

Stockwell Elementary School

Maria Coello-Biarnes

“Camino de Santiago: A Quest for Roots, Identity, and Inner Growth” - with family, complete a long walking pilgrimage through Spain in search of connection to ancestral roots and culture, as well as growth in mindfulness and deep presence

FISHERS

Hamilton Southeastern Schools

Fishers High School

Lance Kuhn

“The Chemistry of a More Sustainable World” - merge two interests of growing food and enjoying nature, to physically and mentally renew

FLORA

Carroll Consolidated Schools

Carroll Elementary School

Jana Conn

“In Vito Veritas: Getting More Seasons from the Vine” - study and learn viticulture, harvest and winemaking to better appreciate the agriculture life in a rural community

FORT WAYNE

East Allen County Schools

East Allen University Early College

Shannon Eichenauer

“Healing, Hiking & Writing: Creativity and Mental Health” - honor the importance of healing through nature, hiking, and writing in United States National Parks

Fort Wayne Community Schools

Fort Wayne Virtual Academy

Jaron Mann

“A Novel Idea: To Walk in the Footsteps of Greatness” - explore historical landmarks and artifacts important to canonical British Literature

Northwest Allen County Schools
Maple Creek Middle School
Kara Harding

“Legendary Ladies of Science” – journey to locations within the United Kingdom and France to study and learn of the contributions of some of history’s most noteworthy female scientists

Southwest Allen County Schools
Homestead High School
Justin Peeper (2011)

“The Road Home: A Journey Across Spain to Reunite with Family” – travel to Spain for a four-week sojourn to explore new places, return to old haunts, trek 100 miles on a pilgrimage, and reunite with Spanish family

GAS CITY

Mississinewa Community Schools
Northview Elementary School
Michelle Neal

“Broken and Reformed: A Journey in Glass” – learn about glass art for a year, then take a cross-country train through the northern United States to Pilchuck Glass School in Seattle

GREENCASTLE

South Putnam Community School Corporation
South Putnam Middle & High School
Amanda King

“Anchorage Away: An Alaskan Road Trip Adventure” – renew a love of the outdoors through hiking in northern United States national parks, exploring and photographing glaciers and recording the lakes and ocean

GREENSBURG

Greensburg Community School Corporation
Greensburg High School
Kelly Sparks

“Diving in to Discover the Treasures of the Ocean” – experience the ocean’s wonder through the lens of a camera with different photo angles, lighting and composition

GREENTOWN

Eastern Howard School Corporation
Eastern High School
Michelle Larson

"An Ironman Triathlon Fit for a Spanish Culture Enthusiast" – complete an international Ironman triathlon across a variety of Spanish-speaking countries by swimming 2.4 miles in Tulum, Mexico, running a full marathon in Madrid, Spain and cycling more than 112 miles throughout the Costa Rican countryside

GREENWOOD

Clark-Pleasant Community School Corporation

Clark-Pleasant Middle School

Jeffery Stanley

"Embracing a New Path!" – learn to embrace change through new experiences to help reflect on the fulfillment of hopes and ambitions and the opportunities still ahead

INDIANAPOLIS

Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School

Stacy Hennessy

"From Devastating Loss to New Life: Journeying in the Bardo" – make a pilgrimage into spiritual awakening on the Camino de Santiago, engaging with 'the bardo' as a tool for wisdom and understanding

Cathedral High School

Lizabeth Bradshaw

"A Bibliophile's Adventure: Reliving the Stories and Scenes of Childhood" – visit the settings and birthplaces of favorite young reader books set in England and France

Goodwill Education Initiatives

The Excel Center University Heights

Holly Hathaway Thompson

"My Myanmar: Exploring the Stories and Sights of Burma, the Golden Country" – connect with Burmese students by listening to and documenting personal accounts from Burmese immigrants and traveling to Myanmar to photograph and witness life in their homeland

Indianapolis Public Schools

Arsenal Technical High School

Nikia Garland

"Lean In – I Have a Story to Tell: Renewing, Reframing, and Reclaiming Myself Through the Oral Traditions of Africa" – explore parts of Africa, walk the footsteps of ancestors, learn ancestral stories from the Maasai tribe in Kenya and the Ashanti in Ghana to share with students, and study the oral traditions of the region

Center for Inquiry School 27

Ellie Pierce

“Sheep to Shawl: Following the Fiber Arts Trail” - a mother and daughter explore the fiber arts of the Midwest from sheep shearing to spinning, crocheting and sewing

Harshman Magnet Middle School

Ella Hereth

“Immersion in the Mayan Yucatan: Ancient Ruins and Modern Customs” - examine a life-long interest in ancient civilizations and archeology by visiting Mayan ruins in the Yucatan; learn about Mayan history while visiting modern Mayan villages

Impact Academy 2 -- Neurodiagnostic Institute

Stacy Wilkison

“Mind (Meditation) + Body (Yoga) + Soul (Waterfalls) = Personal Renewal” - travel and experience natural waterfalls on the big island of Hawaii; study meditation, the art of breathing, and yoga in all aspects of life

Christian Park School 8

Michael McFadden

“What’s New Buenos Aires?” - immerse in Argentinian life by attending Spanish classes to become bilingual; explore the beauty of Argentina

Shortridge High School

Jessica Carlson

“Exploring & Hiking My Way to Sustained Health and Personal Restoration” - take a road trip in a father’s 1982 Volkswagen Westfalia to Alaska to observe wildlife, fish, cook over an open fire and sleep under the stars

Dennis Thomas

“Intergenerational Wanderlust” - travel in a 1978 Volkswagen Westfalia to visit the family homestead, now a dude ranch, outside of scenic South Dakota to reconnect to family heritage and history

International School of Indiana

Ellery Diaz

“Intrepid Artist Heads West” - adventure through the western United States driving a campervan visiting land art pieces, museums and friends; create new art and strengthen creative practice

MSD Lawrence Township
Amy Beverland Elementary
Tamara Shepherd

“Revitalization Through the Art of Yoga” - provide a greater sense of self creativity, passion and skills to instruct students with special needs by obtaining an accreditation in children’s yoga

Belzer Middle School
Julia Majercak (2011)

“Magic, Myths, Monsters and Me: A Behind the Scenes Look at Latinx Stories for School-aged Readers, Viewers and Gamers” - film on-location book talks in central Texas, the borderlands and parts of Mexico for popular books, graphic novels, comics, animation and video games by Latinx authors and creators who use their cultural experiences and historical knowledge to connect and engage youth, especially students who share this common ancestry

MSD of Pike Township
New Augusta Public Academy North
Christina Allegree (2014)

“Art in America: A Study of American Artists and Art Across Our Country” - travel across the country to participate in a variety of art workshops to renew a love of art making and stimulate creativity in the classroom

MSD of Warren Township
Warren Central High School
Sarah Waggoner

“The Story is in the Rock: Active in Nature” - actively explore geologic features through North America to renew an interest in geology and share a commitment to conservation with Earth science students

Grassy Creek Elementary
Kelly Forey

“Seas-ing” the Day: A Counselor’s First Time Cruise to Reset in the Rugged Beauty of Alaska” - unplug and immerse in Alaska’s vast beauty, connect with nature and learn about the local culture

MSD Washington Township
North Central High School
Jill Thrasher-Reid

“Sometimes I Wonder What It’s Like...” - explore two francophone countries in Africa, discovering the unique cultural landscapes of Morocco and Senegal

The Oaks Academy

Andrew Hart

“Roaming into My English Heritage” - walk renowned English public footpaths, engage in local conversation and encounter the character of England through the legally recognized ‘right to roam’

The Oaks Academy Middle School

Jason Kahl

“A Day in the Life” - visit the childhood homes of the Beatles, locations that inspired their compositions, and famous locations related to the band, inspiring creative music composition in folk rock

The Oaks Academy-Brookside

Brett Black

“Waves, Canyons and Verse” - hike in the Santa Monica Mountains and learn to surf at Point Dume; carve out focused contemplative time for free verse poetry and literature

Perry Township Schools

Southport 6th Grade Academy

Tonya Goss

“Let the Games Begin in Athens and Rome!” - travel to Greece and Italy to investigate the daily lives of ancient people through physical activities such as Olympic group training, Roman Gladiator camp and climbing Mt. Olympus

JEFFERSONVILLE

Greater Clark County Schools

Wilson Elementary School

April Holder

“Disney Inspired Leader Animates Learning with Creativity and Magic” - find inspiration through creativity, animation and planning, Disney-style

KOKOMO

Kokomo School Corporation

Central Middle International School

Thomas Perry

“Transformation Through Travel, Gastronomy and Contemplation” - transform through exercising, cooking new cuisines, internationally traveling and practicing contemplation

The Excel Center
The Excel Center - Kokomo
Elizabeth Milam

“Celtic Cast’aye’way: An English Teacher Explores the British Isles” – explore the British Isles, creating photo stories and journaling

LAKE STATION

Lake Station Community Schools
Thomas Edison Jr./Sr. High School
Christina Elizondo

“This Won’t Be My Last Rodeo: Preserving the Memories of My Father through Charreadas, Music, and Dance” – visit ranches in Texas and Tennessee to re-experience the heritage and beautiful memories of childhood

MARTINSVILLE

MSD of Martinsville
John R. Wooden Middle School
Christa Mathews

“Exploring American Waters from Shore to Shore” – push comfort zones by kayaking, paddleboarding, snorkeling, scuba diving, rafting and collecting data as a citizen scientist from the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific Ocean

MAXWELL

Greenfield Central School Corporation
Maxwell Intermediate School
Jennifer Blasdel (with Courtney Foreman of Mt. Healthy Elementary School & L.F. Smith Elementary School)

“Make Mine Mediterranean” – meander the Greek Islands and their unique and unspoiled landscape; learn the traditional local diet, regarded as one of the healthiest on the planet to achieve and maintain wellness

MICHIGANTOWN

Clinton Central School Corporation
Clinton Central Junior/Senior High School
Alexis Atkisson

“Renewal Through Coral Restoration” – become a certified scuba diver and travel to the island of Roatan, Honduras to participate in their Coral Reef Restoration Program and explore the reef

MOORESVILLE

Mooreville Consolidated School Corporation
Paul Hadley Middle School

Crystal Davis

“The Mountains are Calling – Looking Deep into Nature” – seek solitude, self-renewal and an extended time of reflection on an ancestral farm in the Appalachian Mountains of southeastern Kentucky

MUNCIE

Delaware Community Schools

Royerton Elementary School

Jennifer Joslin

“Peace Like a River – Finding Rest and Restoration Through Water Adventures” – explore the natural waterways of United States National Parks in the western and southwestern U.S., both on foot and by kayak, while photographing the unique landforms, people and wildlife

NASHVILLE

Brown County Schools

Brown County Middle School

Jane Phillips (2011)

“Sacred Grounds and Broken Promises” – study the effect of the Grand Coulee Dam on the Colville and Spokane tribes by following the path taken by Woody Guthrie as he penned commissioned songs for his New Deal Project

NEW HAVEN

Central Lutheran School

Amanda Sorg

“Hit the Trail: From Independence, Missouri to Oregon City, Oregon” – bring family history to life by traveling the Oregon Trail to experience the sights, struggles and beauties that awaited early settlers

East Allen County Schools

New Haven Intermediate

Sarah Heath

“Connecting with My Son and His Grandparents Around the World” – reconnect with family after experiencing major trauma while recharging together

NEWBURGH

Diocese of Evansville

Saint John the Baptist Catholic School

Trisha Memmer

“Nature’s Water for a Thirsty Soul: Filling My Bucket Through Nature” – dive into the wonders of the Rocky Mountains and the United States Continental Divide; enhance knowledge of watersheds and topography

Warrick County School Corporation

Newburgh Elementary School

Kristofer Warner (with Heather Warner of Loge Elementary School)

“A Japanese Foreign Exchange Experience” – a family visit to Japan to learn about its culture, family norms, beliefs, horticulture and educational practices; landscape a Japanese garden for relaxation at home

NOBLESVILLE

Public School

Noblesville High School

John Smith (2013)

“Exploring Dad’s WWII History” – visit and experience the places a father risked his life while defending the United States during World War II

OSGOOD

Jac-Cen-Del School Corporation

Jac-Cen-Del High School

Stacy Gray (2009)

“Let’s ‘Peace’ It Together” – learn how to unite differences among communities with collaborative mosaics based on the education of a Mexican mosaic mural making retreat, traveling to the Magic Mosaic Garden and railroading to New York City

OSSIAN

Northern Wells Community Schools

Norwell Middle School

Kristine Everett and Karrie Hamilton (2014)

“One Sister’s Picture Is Worth Her Sister’s Thousand Words” – two sisters chronicle a shared expedition to experience the wonders of the world in Europe, Hawaii, Utah and Arizona

Holly Kimball

“Earth Shattering Experiences in the Land of Fire and Ice” – bring a variety of natural Icelandic phenomena and topography experiences into a rural Indiana classroom

PARKER CITY

Monroe Central School Corporation

Monroe Central Jr-Sr High School

Jenna González de la Vega

“Old World to New: A Cultural Conquest” – travel to Madrid, Spain and Guadalajara, Mexico to investigate the glories of the Spanish culture reflected in architecture, cuisine, kingdoms, conquests and colonization

PLEASANT LAKE

MSD of Steuben County

Pleasant Lake Elementary

Marlene Ewen (with Kristine McCain, Brian Miller and Janice Miller of Angola Middle School)

“Trek From 30.6954° N, 88.0399° W To 30.6954° N, 88.0399° W: The Path of Freedom” - bicycle along the Path of Freedom that slaves traveled from Alabama to Canada striving to reach freedom

PORTAGE

Portage Township School District

Willowcreek Middle School

Debra Ekdahl

“Equine Therapy and Mindfulness in the Classroom” - volunteer on a rescue ranch and help to heal abused and neglected horses to develop compassion and empathy

PORTLAND

Jay School Corporation

Jay County High School

Joshua Gibson

“A Travel Guide to Cross Country Renewal...One Educator Getting That Much-Needed Renewal!” - reboot by traveling the route planned by a late mother through quirky and traditional Americana, beginning in Chicago and heading west

REDKEY

Jay School Corporation

Redkey Elementary

Kelly Bricker

“Exploring Art and Culture in New Mexico: Following Primitive Footsteps” - search for opportunities to enhance growth as an art teacher and artist by immersing in New Mexican art and history

RENSSELAER

Rensselaer Central School Corporation

Rensselaer Central High School

Daniel Hawthorne

“38 Days in the Wilderness: 500 Miles on the Appalachian Trail” - hike 500 miles of the Appalachian Trail with the goal of increasing gratitude

ROANOKE

Southwest Allen County Schools
Lafayette Meadows Elementary School
Abigail Scott

“Lessons from The Land Where People Forget to Die” - immerse in the community of Ikaria, Greece, exploring a culture that exemplifies longevity; learn plant-based cooking skills

RUSSEVILLE

Western School Corporation
Western High School
Luke Waitt

“To the Fields and to the Streets” - embark on a journey across Europe while creating educational videos from major sites two world wars, from the beaches of Normandy to the fields of Somme

SHARPSVILLE

Tri-Central Community Schools
Tri-Central Community Schools Middle School
Shari DeLong

“Full STEAM Abroad” - explore historical sites and museums across Europe, following in the footsteps of great scientists and artists

SHERIDAN

Sheridan Community Schools
Sheridan High School
Mary Dillon

“Wine Not? Enhancement of the Palate and the Neurons One Wine Region at a Time” - investigate the Piedmont and Tuscan wine regions of Italy, as well as Sonoma, California to learn the science, art and technology behind winemaking

SPEEDWAY

School Town of Speedway
Speedway Junior High School
Maria Bailey

“Viaje, Baila, Habla” - explore Costa Rica and Panama to re-learn Spanish and immerse in the cultures of Latin America

TELL CITY

Tell City-Troy Township Public School Corporation
Tell City Jr-Sr High School
Angela Hilgenhold

“Donde me Encuentro de Nuevo - En España” - renew a long interest in the Spanish language and culture while traversing and photographing the country of Spain

THORNTOWN

Western Boone County Community School District
Western Boone Jr-Sr High School
Tricia Skibbe

“Crimes, Culprits and Clues: Investigating the Lives and Works of Three British Mystery Writers” - immerse in British mysteries from favorite writers, their famous detectives and timeless stories

TIPTON

Tipton Community School Corporation
Tipton Elementary School
Janet Whitlock

“Menopause, Midlife, Motorcycles, Mountains, Mandalas, Mosaics, Meditation & More” - explore several outlets, creative and curious, to aid traversing the treacherous trail of menopause, midlife and a long overdue need for resetting

WAKARUSA

Wa-Nee School Corporation
NorthWood Middle School
Stephen Sherk

“Capturing the Wonders of America Through the Five Senses: An RV Experience” - travel across America experiencing wonderful landscapes and creative cuisine

WESTFIELD

Westfield Washington Schools
Maple Glen Elementary School
Mitzi Johnson

“The 3 Rs - Refresh, Rejuvenate and Renew - Continuing the Learning Journey” - participate in a six-day, silent retreat incorporating contemplation, meditation, yoga and breathing techniques

WHITELAND

Clark-Pleasant Community School Corporation
Whiteland Community High School
Peter Sampson (2013)

“Beyond the Folk Song: The Next Chapter” - explore Scottish and French folk songs through the lenses of the culture, landscape and history of Scotland and France

WINAMAC

Eastern Pulaski Community School Corporation
Winamac Community High School
Amy Booker

“Driving Tour of Literary England” - tour England by driving to the settings of the major works that are taught in high school literature and dual-credit courses

ZIONSVILLE

Zionsville Community Schools
Union Elementary School
Lora Karnuta

“How Nature can Nurture: A Quest to Experience and Practice Friluftsliv” - gain a deeper understanding of the Norwegian concept of friluftsliv, which translates as ‘free air life’ and describes the strong connection that Norwegians have with nature

Zionsville Middle School
Ashley Murray and Christopher Murray

“From Bird to Song: Exploring Acadia, Olympic, Everglades and Big Bend National Parks” - combine interests in nature and music by exploring four different United States national parks of varied biomes to observe and incorporate different birds’ songs in a commissioned, multi-movement work for band and orchestra students