In November 2021, Lilly Endowment Inc. approved 84 grants to theological schools across the United States and Canada through the second phase of its Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative (read the news release). The three-phase initiative is designed to help theological schools strengthen and sustain their capacities to prepare and support pastoral leaders for Christian congregations. In June 2022, the Endowment approved grants to 21 additional U.S. and Canadian theological schools through phase two of the Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative (read the news release).

Ranging from $500,000 to $1 million, the grants are supporting efforts at 93 U.S. theological schools and 12 Canadian theological schools. Together, the schools represent the broad diversity of Christianity. They are affiliated with evangelical, mainline Protestant, non-denominational, Pentecostal, Orthodox, Catholic, Black church, Latino, Asian-American and historic peace church traditions (e.g., Church of the Brethren, Mennonite, Quaker).

Additionally, the Endowment made grants to the Association of Theological Schools and the In Trust Center for Theological Schools to coordinate the Pathways initiative. They are providing resources to the grantees and convening them in a learning community to encourage innovation and collaboration.
