

Lilly Endowment Inc.

Teacher Creativity Fellowship Program 2023

Fellowship recipients and project descriptions funded by grants of up to $12,000

Note: Year in parentheses denotes year of a previous Teacher Creativity Fellowship grant.

AVON

Avon Community School Corporation

Avon High School

Jennifer Eckert

"Walking with Dragons" - inspired by Charles Darwin, hike, snorkel and kayak the Galapagos Islands to explore a variety of species, with a focus on tortoises

Mallory Hawkins

"From Cacao to Schokolade - 'Finding My Calm' Through Virtual Reality and Chocolate" - learn the history and process of making chocolate from farm to bar by visiting various cacao farms in Costa Rica; search for the world's best chocolate while on a chocolate tour of Switzerland

BLOOMFIELD

Bloomfield School District

Bloomfield Middle and High School

Christina Fegan

"Creating a New Normal Through Exploration of Family Heritage and Honoring Kenny's Memory" - process grief and honor a loved one through exploring ancestral roots in Northern Ireland and Scotland

BLOOMINGTON

Monroe County Community School Corporation

Bloomington Graduation School

Sarah Erb

"Riding the Roads Less Traveled: Navigating Cultures, Countries and Challenges" - explore new cultures and countries by backroads as a solo adventurer and motorcyclist; expand riding, navigational, mechanical and problem-solving skills

Bloomington High School South

Ramon Garcia-Tamaran

“Sea, Silence, Solitude and Native Spirit: The Healing Power of Nature” - experience restoration by visiting sacred sites, Native American Reservations and contemplative monasteries on a trip to the Northern Pacific coast

Childs Elementary School

Sarah Knepper

“Montana Mountain Magic and More” - rekindle love of photography and enhance knowledge of weathering and landforms by exploring Glacier, Yellowstone, Grand Teton and Rocky Mountain national parks

Templeton Elementary School

Dennis Sipe

“Angling for Answers: Casting My Way to Poetry and Reeling It Back In” - seek renewal through fly fishing for trout from Pennsylvania to Yellowstone National Park and capturing reflections through daily writing

BROWNSBURG

Brownsburg Community School Corporation

Brownsburg East Middle School

Marci Davis

“Breaking Records! Hot to Cold and High to Low” - explore the ecosystems and geology of Denali, Death Valley, Sequoia, and Yellowstone national parks; promote the protection of these environments by sharing photographs; and inspire students to unplug and enjoy the outdoors

Brownsburg High School

Kristen Sargent

“Off the Grid: Recharging One’s Self Through the Power of Nature” - pursue renewal and self-growth through exploring five national parks by RV

Brownsburg West Middle School

Cassandra Brooks

“Down to the Roots: Wellness Through the Lens of Dutch Family Heritage” - research family history in the Netherlands and explore the ways that an active lifestyle shapes past, current and future approaches to wellness education

CARMEL

University High School of Indiana

Tasha Barger

“The Language, Light and Color of France” - conduct intensive investigations into the French language, the artists who shaped the modern art movement in the south of France and how location and light can inspire art

Carmel Clay Schools

Carmel High School

Anthony Dunham

“Pasta, Pizza and My Family’s Past: A Genealogical Exploration of Cultural Heritage Through Food” - master the diverse cuisines of four distinct Italian regions while learning about Italian heritage

CAYUGA

North Vermillion Community School Corporation

North Vermillion High School

Jo Spurr

“I’m on My Whey! Cutting the Cheese Across America” - engage in hands-on learning of the craftsmanship of artisan cheesemaking across the United States

CHARLOTTESVILLE

Eastern Hancock County Community School Corporation

Eastern Hancock High School

Jennifer Lightcap

“You are an Ironman! Rejuvenating by Reaching the Finish Line” - complete new challenges by finishing an Ironman race in the Red Rocks and desert of Arizona

COLUMBUS

Bartholomew Consolidated School Corporation

Columbus East High School

Emily Cordova

“My Own Infinite Adventure” - experience self-renewal while camping, exploring and journaling through the Alaskan wilderness

Columbus North High School

Victoria Shireman

“Restoration through Conservation” - connect with nature and native cultures to learn and seek creative approaches to sustainability and conservation by traveling through Grand Teton, Yellowstone, and Glacier national parks and surrounding Native Reservations

L. Francis Smith Elementary

Casey Voelz (2012)

“The Triangle of Life: Embracing Life Habits in Thailand, Malaysia and Sri Lanka” - explore and draw inspiration from the cultures of wellness in Thailand, Malaysia and Sri Lanka

CONNERSVILLE

Fayette County School Corporation

Whitewater Career Center

Elizabeth Fodrea

“Oma Beth’s Homestead Preservation Project” – inspired by the book series, “The Foxfire Book,” explore a simpler, more self-sufficient homesteading life; share experience with grandchildren and others

CRAWFORDSVILLE

Crawfordsville Community Schools

Mollie B. Hoover Elementary School

Trisha Whicker

“A Personal Alaskan Journey” – experience and photograph Alaska, Iditarod race landmarks and the state’s indigenous people

DALEVILLE

Daleville Community Schools

Daleville Junior/Senior High School

Julian Ravenscroft

“For the Love of SOIL: Thousands of Miles, Magnifications and Minds!” – learn from innovative regenerative farms and unique soil biomes, become a certified soil health expert, and inspire students to grow delicious produce using soil food web data

DECATUR

North Adams Community Schools

Bellmont Middle School

Benjamin Fawbush

“Minor Steps to Reach a Major Goal” – follow in the footsteps of minor league baseball players as they try and reach the goal of playing in the Major League

Bellmont Senior High School

Jaime Macklin

“Happy is What Happens When All Your Dreams Come True” – gain insight on inspiring students to continue in the arts by attending musicals in New York, San Francisco and London and by participating in a theater directors workshop in New York

ELLETTSVILLE

Seven Oaks Classical School

Stephen Shipp

“Renewal Through Return: Walking the Old Paths” - seek renewal and inspiration by retracing personal educational and intellectual journey and exploring the places where great United Kingdom educators lived and wrote

EVANSVILLE

Signature School

Nicholas Bullington

“Viewing the Shoulders of Giants” - learn about foundational European physicists from the 17th century on and how their discoveries led to the current understanding of the physical universe

Evansville Vanderburgh School Corporation

Benjamin Bosse High School

Wendy Dollarhide

“Yucatan Peninsula: Walking Through Rainforests, Beaches and History!” - experience physical and mental challenges by actively exploring the beauty of the Yucatan Peninsula and becoming immersed in the culture and language

Highland Elementary School

Nichole Freiburger

“Trolling for Trolls and Trashy Treasures” - explore and learn about recycled art activist Thomas Dambo’s hidden troll sculptures, finding renewed peace by connecting with nature, art and the sustainability of our earth

McCutchanville Elementary School

Mindy Matthews

“Step into a Big Island Backyard: Observing Feathered Friends and Planting Seeds To Grow Mindfulness for Your Soul” - volunteer with plant nurseries and bird sanctuaries in Hawaii to learn the art of floriculture, horticulture and nature’s tools for mental health

FISHERS

Catholic Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana

St. Louis de Montfort Catholic School

Margaret Berger

“A Pilgrimage to Italy: Traveling Across the Ocean to Find My Way Back Home” - a faith-filled pilgrimage to Italy to view life from a broadened cultural and intellectual perspective

Hamilton Southeastern Schools

Fishers High School

Brigham French

“Fulfilling Dreams in Dublin” - visit ancestral lands and family, explore the culture, kiss the Blarney Stone and fulfill a lifelong dream of watching a rugby game in Ireland

Fishers Junior High School

Deborah Kletch

“The Howl of the Wild” - immerse in spectacular vistas of the Canadian Rockies and reconnect with wild places by photographing wolves, bears, elk and other wildlife

FORT WAYNE

Canterbury School

Trevor Campbell

“Mimesis of Migrations: Following and Drawing the Great Migrations of Alaska” - reflect and create artworks of North American wildlife by following, photographing and drawing the seasonal migrations of salmon, humpback whales and the Porcupine Caribou Herd throughout Alaska

Indiana District of Lutheran Church Missouri Synod

St. Paul’s Lutheran School

Andrew Whirrett

“Family Road Trip Across the American West” - explore western states and national parks and create a future travel itinerary for foreign exchange families

Fort Wayne Community Schools

South Side High School

Kara Fultz

“One Woman, One Bag: A Dream No Longer Deferred” - backpack on three continents and take in breathtaking views, absorb new cultures, see the world’s greatest natural treasures and reclaim lost time

Weisser Park Elementary School

Vincent Serrani

“Pushing Pedals and Personal Limits” - discover the hidden wonders of the Lake Michigan region by bicycle, a three-week adventure to challenge the body, clear the mind and breathe life into a teacher’s soul

Whitney Young Early Childhood Center

Andrea Jones and Erin Patton-McFarren

“Homeland to Heartland” - journey to Brazil with ‘traveling studios’ to create art and return to share an immersive art and cultural experience in the heartland of Indiana

MSD Southwest Allen County Schools

Covington Elementary School

Jennifer Peeper

“Reconnecting Through Culture, Service and Community: A Three-Week Reunion in Africa” – immerse in culture, partner with service organizations and experience the community on a visit to Rwanda and South Africa after an eight-year absence

Woodside Middle School

Sarah Kniss

“Viewing the Earth Through the Eyes of an Astronaut” – trace the history of the U.S. space program and learn about current missions by visiting iconic locations across the United States while reflecting on the unique balance of natural biodiversity on our home planet

FORTVILLE

Mt. Vernon Community School Corporation

Mt. Vernon High School

Yi-Fan Lin

“Telling Bilingual and Bicultural Stories” – learn from Asian American experiences by traveling to Chinatowns in the United States and sharing stories discovered in both English and Mandarin to increase understanding of different cultures

FRANKLIN

Franklin Community School Corporation

Custer Baker Intermediate School

Christa Roberts

“Eat, Play, Love” – explore the concept of giving back, known as charity in Christianity, zakat in Islam, and dāna in Hinduism through travels in Italy, Indonesia and India; find purpose and restoration in caring for self and others

Franklin Community Middle School

Marc Callan

“From Rembrandt Under Glass to Big Mike on the Ceiling” – delve into the aesthetic, psychological and spiritual impact of artists such as Rembrandt, Rodin, Titian, Donatello, Leonardo and Michelangelo through traveling and journaling in six European cities

GOSHEN

Goshen Community Schools

Goshen High School

Lavonne Shetler

“Warm Culture, Warm Heart: Learning about Latin American Culture through Language and Literature” – build restorative creative practice, engage more fully with community and develop broader compassion for students through international travel, language school and new cultural experiences

GREENWOOD

Center Grove Community School Corporation

Center Grove High School

Alice Thompson

“Gardens Galore: A Photographic Journey Through the Seasons” - journey through the most beautiful gardens in the world during all four growing seasons; create a photographic journal with sketches to reimagine and create a renewal garden at home

Alisha Milligan

“Living My Husband’s Legacy” - travel to Alaska to camp, hike and immerse in the natural places of the state to recreate the course that her late husband led for more than 20 years

HEBRON

MSD Boone Township

Hebron High School

Stephanie Santos Crook

“Strength Through Adversity: A Journey of Recovery and Reflection” - learn more the role of religious faith and how it can foster strength in adversity by visiting European locations where war and conflict have strained even the most devoted

INDIANAPOLIS

Covenant Christian High School

Sean Bird (2008)

“Renewal in Scotland Retracing Maxwell and Reformers Steps” - during the 150th anniversary of his Treatise on Electricity and Magnetism, retrace the steps and Reformation heritage of James Clerk Maxwell, a Scottish Presbyterian elder and mathematical physicist

The Oaks Academy - Middle School

Laura Grammer (2011)

“Knit Together” - learn to knit on a unique sheep farm in England which houses a wool processing mill

Paul Kortepeter

“With Pen and Boots in Ireland” - add descriptive detail to two middle school novels-in-progress by rambiling the blustery wild country of western Ireland

The Orchard School

Dustin Klein

“Spiritual and Cultural Renewal Through Music-Connecting Songs to the Soul” - reinvigorate love and knowledge of music history, teaching and performance by traveling to seven musical epicenters in Europe

Karen Powell

“I Am Peace” - become inspired and revitalized at Peace Awareness Training in Israel; experience restoration and create a multilingual children’s book about peace after visiting UNESCO world heritage sites for Baha’i, Christianity, Islam and Judaism

St. Richard’s Episcopal School

Stacy Graber (2010)

“A Renewal Roadtrip: Culinary Adventures for the Heart, Soul and Classroom” - experience the culture and cuisine of the Mediterranean region

Catholic Archdiocese of Indianapolis

Bishop Chatard High School

Lisa Johnson

“Exploring the Shift Between Roman Mosaics to Byzantine Mosaics” - engage in an artistic and spiritual journey through Italy studying and examining Roman and Byzantine mosaics

St. Matthew Catholic School

Alexandra Nahmias

“Renewing Mind, Body and Spirit Through Fables and Folktales” - celebrate physical strength and enrich units of study through traveling to the Nordic land to learn about folktales, complete a half marathon under the aurora borealis and engage in reflection, meditation and exploration

Indianapolis Public Schools

Arsenal Technical High School

Isaac Adams (with April Adams of Thomas Gregg Neighborhood School 15)

“Watercolor and Wilderness: An Escape to the Natural World” - immerse into the natural world to seek healing, rest, calm, awe, and inspiration while cultivating skills and passions through watercolor painting, fly fishing, and hiking

Butler University Lab School 55

Erika Kline

“Walking Away the ‘Shoulds’ on the Camino de Santiago” - find clarity, joy and confidence as a whole human using the rhythms of walking and the magic of the Way of St. James

Lew Wallace School 107

Denise Hershberger

“Revisiting Costa Rica to Experience ‘Pura Vida’ ” - experience the simple life in a small Costa Rican town while living with a host family and improving Spanish language skills

Thomas Gregg Neighborhood School 15

April Adams (with Isaac Adams of Arsenal Technical High School)

“Watercolor and Wilderness: An Escape to the Natural World” - immerse into the natural world to seek healing, rest, calm, awe, and inspiration while cultivating skills and passions through watercolor painting, fly fishing, and hiking

MSD Decatur Township

Decatur Central High School

Tracey Krell (2012)

“Cairo to Chinotimba” - renew love of art and culture by traveling from Northern Africa to South Africa; explore ancient mysteries, exciting safaris and meet with indigenous people

MSD Washington Township

Crooked Creek Elementary School

Keana Parquet

“Identity Crisis: Reimagining My Identity. Longing to Understand My Other Culture” - explore areas of South Korea to reconnect with biological mom and discover a greater understanding of self; learn the country’s history and participate in its culture by studying its food, fashion, beauty, wellness and music

Nora Elementary School

Jill Kropa

“Journey Through Discomfort” - gain appreciation of refugee and immigrant populations by navigating new cultures alone; engage in three yoga retreats in unfamiliar countries and cultures

North Central High School

Sheila Akinleye

“Remembering Carver: Finding Relief from Grief Through Family, Tradition and Botany” - explore the life of personal hero Dr. George Washington Carver and apply his life principles through an exploration of botanical gardens

Melissa Blessing Martin (2005)

“Getting to the Root of It: A Journey to My Family Roots Through the Lens of Language and Writing” - investigate family’s German roots, language and culture by discovering the history and beauty of Germany

Spring Mill Elementary School

Lisa Harton

“In the Beginning There Was the Word: West African Oral Traditions from Home to the Homeland” - reflect, restore and discover ways to support international colleagues in Ghana; explore oral traditions of Ghanaian culture in order to develop a platform for storytelling to share with school community

Westlane Middle School

Elsa Eckart

“The Joys of Junior High” - integrate three junior high passions of writing, drawing and French through a visit to France and create a travel journal replete with sketches, descriptions and impressions of France’s architecture, paintings, language and people

MSD Wayne Township

Area 31 Career Center

Daniel Schifano

“In Giro Per le Mie Passioni (Touring my Passions)” - feeding a passion for the culinary arts by experiencing the food and culture of Italy while enjoying the freedom and release of interacting with the countryside on a motorcycle

Ben Davis High School

Susan Williams

“Repairing What’s Broken” - embark on a personal journey to better understand peacemaking and how communities are restored by traveling to Africa to learn how art is used by indigenous artists for therapeutic purposes in post-genocide Rwanda

Ben Davis Ninth Grade Center

Amanda Cowgill

“Using Calligraphy to Link Past and Present” - learn calligraphy and travel to libraries and museums in Chicago, London, Edinburgh and Dublin to view and read manuscripts written in calligraphy

Ben Davis University High School

John Dimmick and William Sibley

“In the Footsteps of the Fighting 44th” - follow the path that the U.S. Army’s 44th Infantry Division made through France, Germany and Austria during World War II and seek renewal through exploration, gastronomy, fellowship, contemplation and history

David Killion

“Asian Art Adventure” - enhance knowledge, understanding and appreciation of diverse Asian cultures and their historical and contemporary contributions to visual and performing arts; experience a variety of performing arts, tour museums and galleries, visit historical sites, meet artists and participate in workshops to develop creativity

Bridgeport Elementary School

Deanna Ratz

“Eat, Wander, Pray: A Mediterranean Odyssey of Cuisine, Exploration and Spirituality” - seek renewal and purpose professionally, personally and spiritually by exploring and experiencing the landscapes, historical sites and cultures of Italy and Greece

Lynhurst 7th & 8th Grade Center

John Murty

“Managing the Mental Health Workload” - find new and innovative strategies in the United Kingdom to provide equitable mental health services to Indiana students

Maplewood Elementary School

Danica Park

“Costa Rica or Bust: Immersion Into the Language and Culture of Costa Rica” - develop fluency in Spanish and become familiar with Costa Rican culture by studying dance, cooking and other art forms; participating in intercambios; and touring national parks

JEFFERSONVILLE

Greater Clark County Schools

Jeffersonville High School

Pamela Hall

“Art Underground” - discover beauty amid chaos by exploring graffiti, sculpture musical performances and other art forms in the New York City subway system

LA PORTE

La Porte Community School Corporation

La Porte Middle School

Megan Sullivan

“Facing Hard History” - learn about slavery in the United States, including how it is remembered and taught, by visiting New Orleans and New York, two cities shaped in significant ways by slavery

LAFAYETTE

Faith Christian School

Elizabeth Haynie

“Spanish Exploration for Firsthand Experience” – explore the country, culture and history of Spain to bring fresh perspective and authentic insight to future years of Spanish teaching while purposefully sparking intentional self-awareness, introspection and reflection made possible through solo travel

Lafayette School Corporation

Jefferson High School

Cameron Nunan

“Teacher. Technology. Tokyo.” – experience and document the mesmerizing technologies and cultures of Tokyo and Kyoto while learning of their success as megacities

Oakland Academy

Lindsay Nunan

“Inspiration in Italy” – experience and digitally document the art and history of the Italian Renaissance in Florence and the history behind Shakespeare’s greatest works in Verona, Venice and Rome; attend the Future of Education Conference in Florence

MARTINSVILLE

MSD Martinsville Schools

South Elementary School

Julie Sullivan

“Aloha! Riding the Waves of Change” – work to preserve some of the world’s most threatened sea turtles by volunteering with and learning from a sea turtle conservation team in Hawaii

MUNCIE

The Indiana Academy for Science, Mathematics, and Humanities

David Haynes (2015)

“Made in Massachusetts and the Editing Room” – expand cinematic education by creating an audio-visual memoir of family’s origins and experiences in Massachusetts, creating a wholly personal film from inception to completion

John Marsh

“Seeking Educational Theater and Classroom Inspiration in Britain” – inspire the creation of youth educational theater scripts through a transformative journey across Great Britain

Sean Scott

“A Hoosier Historian’s European Grand Tour” – deepen historical knowledge through visiting some of the most iconic landmarks, museums and cathedrals of England and France and hiking portions of the Tour du Mont Blanc, Swiss Alps and Scottish Highlands

NAPPANEE

Wa-Nee Community Schools

NorthWood High School

Zachary McGowen

“Ski Schooled” – pursue improvement in personal passion of skiing by participating in lessons on Michigan moguls, Appalachian groomers and Rocky Mountain timber-lined back bowls at four different ski schools

NEW HAVEN

Lutheran Schools of Indiana

Central Lutheran School

Janet Hayward

“In Search of Kindness: Exploring the Culture and Beauty of the Rock” – immerse in a unique culture of kindness that provided food, water, shelter and friendship to nearly 7,000 passengers who were stranded for five days starting on September 11, 2001; explore over 1,500 miles of Newfoundland’s rocky cliffs, fjords, waterfalls and brightly painted cities

NEWBURGH

Catholic Diocese of Evansville

St. John the Baptist Catholic School

Maria Dickinson Janney

“A Granddaughter’s Journey: Uncovering the Heroism of World War II” – learn about the sacrifices many Americans made during World War II through travels to Hawaii and New Orleans; capture reflections in a book

NOBLESVILLE

Legacy Christian School

Melinda Just

“A Journey into the Past” – travel through parts of Eastern Europe to better understand and experience family history, visit sites that had generational impact and collect photos and personal accounts to use in a documentary to preserve memories for future generations

Catholic Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana

Guerin Catholic High School

Liane Foerder

"Walking the Way (Caminando el Camino): A Catholic-School Spanish Teacher's Adventure of a Lifetime" - hike the ancient religious pilgrimage, the Way of St. James (El Camino de Santiago), from southern France across northern Spain, a total of 477 miles, for spiritual renewal, Spanish language practice and an exploration of historical and religious sites

PORTAGE

Portage Township Schools

Wallace Aylesworth Elementary

Kara Orosz and Caryn Rybecki

"Educational TikToking Across Europe" - renew passion for learning and teaching while using an innovative approach to connect to curriculum topics and create connections to new knowledge through easily consumable, educational and kid-friendly videos

RICHMOND

Richmond Community Schools

Richmond High School

Derek Worch

"Parli Italiano? A Journey of Exploration, Study and Rejuvenation with la Lingua Italiana" - study Italian in Rome and Florence while exploring the local culture and history

SHARPSVILLE

Tri-Central Community Schools

Tri-Central Middle/High School

Heather Holman

"Hemingway Summer: A Moveable Feast of Literature and Life" - pursue healing and growth by visiting and writing in the places important to Ernest Hemingway, culminating in teaching a Hemingway course and facilitating a suicide survivors' support group

SHELBYVILLE

Shelbyville Central Schools

Shelbyville Senior High School

Justin Stenger

"Reflection, Rhythms and Relatives" - practice mindfulness while on the Shikoku Pilgrimage before exploring family lineage through Japanese language study and travels; explore the culture and art of Japanese taiko drumming

SOUTH BEND

South Bend Community School Corporation

Adams High School

Cecilia Stanton-Verduzco (2015)

“A Renaissance: A Journey of Passion Through Language and Art” - explore and document the art and culture of Italy, Spain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and England

ST. JOHN

Lake Central School Corporation

Lake Central High School

Lisa Moreno (2011)

“Who and What Makes HOME a Home?” - explore wildlife sanctuaries and discover the geological history around four of the Great Lakes, Silver Springs State Park and the Atlantic Ocean

TERRE HAUTE

Vigo County School Corporation

Woodrow Wilson Middle School

Sheri Foy

“Experiencing the Gold Rush: When an 1849 Diary Becomes a 2023 Road Map” - follow great-great-grandfather’s path along the Oregon Trail en route to gold rush towns of California

WABASH

Wabash City Schools

L. H. Carpenter Early Learning Center

Kristi Clark

“What a Wonderful World: Immersion in Nature to Reawaken Mind, Body and Soul” - experience ecotherapy by traveling from Alaska through the Canadian Rockies and to Yellowstone and Arches national parks

WAKARUSA

Wa-Nee Community Schools

Northwood Middle School

Valerie Anglemeyer

“The Quest for Calm and Wabi-Sabi: An Instructional Coach’s Journey to Find the Beauty in Imperfection” - investigate the impact created by landscapes and explore the idea of wabi-sabi through a cultural exploration of Japan

WALTON

Lewis Cass Schools

Lewis Cass High School

Vicki Dockery

“A Beacon of Hope and Renewal” – study the history of seven lighthouses, from Old Baldy to Currituck Lighthouse, while representing each in a different art medium

WEST NEWTON

MSD Decatur Township

West Newton Elementary School

Diane Stebbe (2014)

“Music Composition Inspiration: Following the Footsteps of a Child Genius” – gain inspiration to write a piece of vocal music in the style of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart by traveling the three-year itinerary he took as a child and experiencing the sights he saw and the places where he performed

WESTFIELD

Westfield-Washington Schools

Westfield High School

Sydney Bartel

“Zen & Now” – learn Zen meditation and traditional landscaping techniques from experts in Japanese Buddhist gardens

Westfield Intermediate School

Kathryn Speidel

“Finding My Center: A Journey of Reconnecting to Myself Through Simple Living, Nature and Throwing Pottery in Mid-Coastal Maine” – focus on ceramic creativity and finding balance through living simply and practicing mindfulness for inner peace, rest and rejuvenation

WHITELAND

Clark-Pleasant Community School Corporation

Whiteland Community High School

Nathaniel Cangany

“History and Hoops: Two Passions, One Experience” – travel to Revolutionary War historic sites in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Colonial Williamsburg and visit college basketball programs throughout the country